

WHISKEY STILL 129

$450,000
129± ACRES
TERRELL COUNTY, GA

Whiskey Still 129 is a 129± acre recreational property located in Terrell County, north of Parrott and just a short drive from Highway 520. An established road system provides access throughout the property, connecting several food plots and a diverse mix of pine timber and mature hardwoods.

Two natural springs flow through a large hardwood drain, providing a dependable water source and quality habitat for wildlife. An old whiskey still remains along the bank, giving the property its name and adding a unique piece of local history.

Surrounded by large agricultural tracts, the property supports an abundant deer population and offers strong hunting potential. With power easily accessible, Whiskey Still 129 is well suited for a hunting camp, weekend retreat, or future rural homesite. Schedule a showing today.

Property is shown by appointment only.
